ECO ACRES

~~21~~ 6 - Residential Lots Available

Marketing remarks BUILD FOR TOMORROW - ENJOY TODAY.
Now is the perfect time to build your dream home. Thirty years ago, sellers had a vision of a residential community of energy efficient and environmentally friendly family homes. HomeLand Realty & Auction is excited to represent this development featuring spacious residential lots of approximately half an acre; no street specials; no size requirements and city services. Stick built homes are required, but may be built on or off site allowing the opportunity to lessen your building time. Today's energy efficient building materials are ideal for this development which saves you utility costs for a lifetime as well as conserving our natural resources. Plan today, for the enjoyment of generations to come.
